BERLIN INDECISIVE ABOUT NEXT STEP IN PEACE EFFORTS

Reports That Note Is Already on Way Unconfirmed==Lay Foundation for "Last Ditch" Fight

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 20.—According to advices reaching here today from Germany, the German reply to President Wilson may not be ready until Monday.

PARIS Oct. 20.—The German reply to President Wilson will announce immediately the suspension of submarine warfare and offer political guarantees, German newspapers say, according to Geneva dispatches to L'Information.

The German papers declare the note will abandon the proposal for a mixed commission to discuss conditions of an armistice "which the American and German high commands will arrange on the battle field."

Berlin financial circles are reported disturbed over reports that negotiations have been broken off.

LONDON, Oct. 20., 11:17 p. m.—Official quarters in London were still without news of the German reply to President Wilson at a late hour tonight.

The view here is that in the event that the reply is unacceptable to the Entente Powers, Austria and Turkey will arrange a joint conference for the purpose of taking independent peace action.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—According to unofficial reports reaching Amsterdam, the German reply to President Wilson was delivered to the Swiss minister in Berlin Saturday evening, says an Exchange Telegraph Amsterdam despatch.

In the note Germany consents to the evacuation of Belgium but considers such a withdrawal will take several months.

Germany protests against the charges of cruelty in the President's note, saying she was forced into submarine warfare by the Allied blockage.

The German government, it is added, denies responsibility for the loss of women and children on torpedoed passenger ships but to advance peace Germany is preparing provisionally to stop unrestricted submarine warfare.

Finally the note disputes the right of foreign powers to meddle with German internal affairs and declares Germany should enjoy the same right of self-determination as other nations.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—So many conflicting reports about a German reply to President Wilson have come out of Holland and Switzerland during the past few days that officials here are disposed now to believe nothing on the subject until the text of a note is received.

Every version of the probable nature of the reply under consideration, if not adopted, indicates the Germans are preparing to come forward with what they, at least, will expect the world to believe is a long step toward meeting conditions which President Wilson has said must be met before there can be thought of an armistice or discussion of peace. Whatever may be the substance of the note, it is believed here its form will be designed to make it difficult for President Wilson to avoid further exchanges.

According to one report today, the Germans will agree to evacuate Belgium and provisionally to abandon unrestricted submarine warfare, but will dispute the right of foreign powers to meddle with German internal affairs. Another says the offer will include immediate suspension of submarine warfare, political guarantees and an armistice "which the American and German high commands will arrange on the battle field." A Madrid despatch saying the Spanish government was informed all German submarines had been ordered to their bases appeared to support suggestions that abandonment of the U-boat campaign has been determined upon.

Competent spokesmen of the government have reiterated that there is to be no drawn-out series of exchanges. If the German government seeks talk without submission, the president is expected to refuse to continue the discussion.

Stirring Up Socialists.

AMSTERDAM, Saturday, Oct. 19.—German independent socialists probably will participate in the drafting of the note to President Wilson, according to the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin. The newspaper says Hugo Haase, leader of the socialist minority in the reichstag, and George Ledebour, social democrat leader, have conferred on the subject with Constantin Fehrenbach, president of the reichstag.

"The people will defend themselves if they are obliged to do so," they are said to have informed him.

The organ of the general commission of trades unions has issued a statement on behalf of those organizations declaring:

"We are prepared for most resolute resistance if the enemy rejects our peace offer. We have no intention of making peace at any price. We most resolutely reject such a peace as imperialistic France and England would like to dictate."

PITCHED BATTLE IN SOFIA STREETS

Business Interests Suffer Severely in Bulgaria

SALONIKA, Tuesday, Oct. 15.—(By the Associated Press).—American business men, arriving from Sofia, report there was a pitched battle in the streets during the change in the Bulgarian ministry in which machine guns, cannon and airplanes were engaged and many persons killed.

American business interests, especially in the tobacco business in the towns of Kavala, Seres and Drama, suffered heavily during the two years of Bulgarian occupation.

Since the offensive began September 15, when the French and Serbians stormed the heights thirty miles east of Monastir, later enlarging their gains in a fan-shaped advance through Albania and Serbia, two-thirds of Serbia has been reconquered, with the enemy's resistance steadily diminishing. The occupation of Nish by French and Serbians resulted in the capture of an abundance of food, munitions and gasoline for an army which had proceeded far from its base.

HARA ADHERES TO JAPAN'S POLICIES

Declares Nation Anti-German; Good Will Toward America

TOKYO, Thursday, Oct. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—Takashi Hara, Japan's first commoner premier and leader of the Seiyukwai party, said today in his first statement of his policies, that Japan had no intention or ambition of aggression or conquest and that the country had no idea except to be in proper condition for defense and that the military influence in Japan is not so dominant as outsiders may believe.

Premier Hara said he held to the open door policy of the Lansing-Ishii agreement in China and would adhere to the policy of non-interference in Chinese internal affairs. The same, he said, was true in the case of Russia, where Japan only wished a responsible government, whether Bolshevik or otherwise. Japan, however, would never agree to see Russia dominated by German influence.

The premier declared Japan's expedition into Siberia was the result of consultations with the United States and the Allies, and that Japan had no intention of taking independent action in future. Premier Hara declared he was amazed, on visiting America eleven years ago, to hear the fears voiced by some Americans that Japan's military strength was designed against America.

"This is, of course, absurd," he said. "History shows Japan never has engaged voluntarily in wars. It is admitted that our war against Russia was purely defensive. We have no ambition nor intention of aggression or conquest. The present war shows that our agreements were defective and those will be remedied, but Japan has no idea except to be in a proper condition for defense.

"Our victories in the Chinese and Russian wars naturally led the Japanese people to admire their army, and this, in turn, may have led to a misconception abroad of the importance which Japan gives to armaments.

Against Militarism

"The military influence is not so dominant in Japan as outsiders may believe. Our constitution is still young, and some of our people may favor a form of government similar to the German system, but the present ministry is united in the determination to secure the constitutional development

RHINE IS LAST LINE OF DEFENSE

Germany Feels She Is Gaining Strength in Retiring From Belgium

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—(By The Associated Press.)—Events of the past three months, involving the ebb of the German tide of invasion in France and Belgium have emphasized the importance of the German defensive systems which have been prepared for just the emergency which now confronts them. The German defensive lines resemble a tree with three main branches. The trunk of this "tree" has its roots at the Swiss frontier and continues north as far as Metz, where it divides into two branches. The westerly branch runs to the northwest as far as the Meuse river, where it separates, one "limb" crossing the Meuse and running westward, after which it sweeps north on a long curve. The other follows the Meuse down as far as Namur, whence it runs to Brussels, Antwerp and the Dutch frontier.

The branch that crosses the Meuse is the first that must be broken by the Allies. In fact, recent British and Belgian victories in Belgian Flanders seem to have rendered a large part of this line untenable as a permanent position.

Hunding Line

This line crosses the Meuse at Dun, goes through the Argonne forest and follows the Aisne river as far as Rethel, where it turns north and passes near Guise and Solesmes, past Valenciennes and reaching the Scheldt at Conde. It runs along the Scheldt past Tournai and Ghent, where it turns to the eastward and reaches Antwerp. This is the "Hunding line."

The second line, known as the "line of the Meuse," is established on the east bank of the Meuse river, northward from Dun. It passes Sedan and Mezieres and enters Belgium just southwest of Dinant. At Namur it leaves the river and runs to Brussels, continuing on to Antwerp, where it joins the "Hunding line" and continues to the Dutch border.

The third line is the original defense zone along the German frontier, South of Metz. It is centered around the thirty-seven permanent ports about Strassburg. It runs over the high and precipitous hills on the Vosges mountains and is several miles deep.

Twenty-eight Forts

At Metz, the Germans have constructed twenty-eight great forts, which are so located as to command all approaches and are at the same time capable of concentrating their fire on any one fort entered by the Allies.

Northwest of Metz is the great iron field of Briey, the importance of which has compelled the Germans to convert the whole country there into a veritable fortress. This line runs along the boundary between France and Germany, bending to the northeast until it reaches the Luxemburg line.

If this belt should be pierced, the Germans may fall back to the Saarbruecken and Kaiserslautern regions, interspersed by rivers and high-wooded hills which lend themselves admirably to defensive operations.

East of Luxemburg, it is reported, the Germans have devoted a great deal of time and labor to constructing permanent fortifications.

WILL TAKE MANY DAYS TO COUNT SALES OF BONDS

Buyers of Fourth Issue Said to Number More Than 25,000,000

BIG PURCHASES AT MANILA, P. I.

Chicago District Goes Over Its Quota by Sixty Millions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Probably 25,000,000 or more individuals bought bonds of the fourth Liberty loan, unofficial reports reaching Washington today showed. A large proportion of these filed their subscriptions during the last few days of the campaign. Consequently, it will be a task of many days to count the number of pledges and compile reports from the entire country.

Definite figures and the total subscriptions to the loan were not available tonight. Local and district campaign managers, fatigued with their arduous duties will not start until tomorrow to figure up the avalanche of last-minute purchases. The only official figures in hand were those of Friday night, showing about $1,100,000,000 yet to be subscribed.

Despite this lack of definite information, officials were confident the $6,000,000,000 popular war credit has been over-subscribed. This belief was based on indications that advance promises of large sums from financial interests in New York and elsewhere would be found fulfilled when the final count was made.

Ten Days to Check.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Winners in the twelfth federal reserve bank district ship and tank naming contests of the fourth Liberty loan will not be known until a careful check has been made of official over-subscriptions by cities and counties in the district, it was announced here tonight. It was estimated this might take ten days.

The honor of naming ten tanks goes to the leading counties and the honor of naming the ships will be awarded the cities. No county is eligible for the tank naming contest which has a city of more than 10,000 population.

George A. Van Smith, manager of publicity for the district, said tonight that when the ten cities select sponsors for the ships, the persons chosen will be expected personally to name the ships and not delegate the honor to others.

More than thirty cities competed in the ship naming contest.

The race between southern and northern California in the percentage of over-subscription of quota, loan officials said, was one of the most spirited campaigns in the district. Southern California reported tonight a total of 113.7 per cent, while virtually the same percentage is claimed for the northern part of the state exclusive of San Francisco. Los Angeles reported today subscriptions totalling $46,416,290 or 105.6 per cent from a roster of 190,203 subscribers. The San Francisco figures will not be known for some time but it appeared from returns, officials said, that Los Angeles had beaten San Francisco in the contest to name one of the ten ships alloted to the twelfth federal reserve bank district.

The official count of San Francisco's subscription to the loan stood tonight at $97,049,105. Campaign officials said they were hopeful the total would be more than this city's quota of $107,876,700. They do not expect to know definitely until Tuesday or Wednesday.

Chicago Reports.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Chicago over-subscribed its quota to the fourth Liberty loan by more than $30,000,000, and the seventh Federal reserve district, outside Chicago, exceeded its allotment by approximately $28,918,500, according to unofficial figures issued tonight.

MANILA, Oct. 20.—A demonstration of natives for the fourth Liberty loan here Thursday brought an over-subscription of 50 per cent to the city's quota. Seven native women subscribed for a total of $10,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—San Quentin prison, near San Rafael, received the last industrial honor pennant for 100 per cent subscriptions to the fourth Liberty loan, it was announced here tonight. Each of the 121 employes subscribed to the loan. Prisoners subscribed a total of more than $1,500. The latter included three "life termers."

YOSEMITE ARTIST IS FOUND, DEAD

MERCED, Cal., Oct. 20.—The body of George Fiske, pioneer artist, for forty years official photographer in Yosemite Valley, was found today in his home in the valley. A rifle containing a discharged shell lay near. Fiske's wife died about a year ago.

CONSUL GIVES UP GERMAN STEAMER

BILBAO, Spain, Saturday, Oct. 19.—The German consul here has handed over to Spanish authorities the German steamer Euriphla. The Spanish colors have been hoisted on the vessel.

The transfer probably is in keeping with the recent agreement by which Spain is to get interned German ships in exchange for Spanish ships sunk by German submarines.

DENMARK WANTS GERMANY TO MAKE GOOD ON TREATIES

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 20.—Denmark, according to news agency telegrams to the Dutch press, has sent a note to Germany suggesting that certain terms of the treaties executed between the two countries in the period from 1866 to 1870 should be carried out.

The Vaterland points out that an article of the treaty of 1864, which ceded Schleswig-Holstein and Lauenburg to Prussia, provided for a plebiscite in Schleswig to decide whether the inhabitants would prefer allegiance to Germany or Denmark. This provision, it is declared, never has been carried out.

GERMANY SAID TO HAVE CALLED ITS DIVERS BACK HOME

MADRID, Oct. 20.—The Spanish government, according to the newspapers, had received a German official communication stating that the German admiralty has ordered submarines to return immediately to their bases.

GERMAN JOURNALS URGE ABDICATION OF HOHENZOLLERNS

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Abdication of Emperor William and the crown prince is the only means of solving the "terrible crisis," according to opinions expressed by the Munich Post, the Swaebische Tagwacht and Frankische Morgen Post, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Zurich says. It is added that the more rapidly the abdication is brought about, the better for the country.

OUTDOOR EXERCISES IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Church services throughout San Francisco were held today in the open air as a precautionary measure against the spread of the epidemic of Spanish influenza.

Several congregations assembled in cemeteries, others held services on the steps of their churches. Several services were dedicated to prayers that the epidemic might cease.

At the Presidio, the soldiers held services on barrack porches.

Fewer Reported.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Only 276 new cases of Spanish influenza were reported to the city board of health here, against 1,101 yesterday. Deaths today were 26, against 22 yesterday.

Health officials attributed the sharp decrease to the possibility that a number of physicians, believing the health office closed today, did not report their cases.

Severe at San Jose.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 20.—Eight deaths and sixty new cases of Spanish influenza were announced today by the San Jose health officers, with a larger percentage of cases developing pneumonia than since the epidemic began. Hospitals are unable to care for patients seeking admission.

CLAIM TO SAVE ALL THEIR SHIPS

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 20.—Germania, of Berlin, the Centrist party organ, prints an obviously inspired commentary on the evacuation of the Flanders coast, saying it will have an inconsiderable effect on conduct of the naval war.

The newspaper says all the German constructed military works at Ostend, Zeebrugge and elsewhere were either dismantled and removed or left in an unusable condition.

"We have succeeded in getting all the ships home," it says. "A few serviceable ships that we were forced to leave were dismantled and destroyed."

SEVERE DEFEAT FOR BOLSHEVIKI

SHANGHAI, Saturday, Oct. 19.—(By The Associated Press.)—Bolshevik troops advancing toward Ekaterinburg have been severely defeated by Czecho-Slovak and Siberian forces. The Bolsheviki lost one thousand men killed, three armored trains, eleven locomotives and sixty machine guns.

CAPITALISTS BUY AVIATION TRACT

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Prominent business men of New York, Baltimore, Chicago and San Francisco, headed by Reginald C. Vanderbilt, have acquired a large tract of land at Lloyd's neck, L. I., to extend the work of the government in aviation practice, it was announced tonight.

GERMANS MASSING HALF MILLION MEN ON RETREAT FLANK

Hope to Prevent Allies Coming in From South While Belgium Is Evacuated

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Fifteen thousand retreating German soldiers have been interned in Holland, after being cut off by Belgian troops moving northward from Eecloo, according to reports from the frontier, reaching Amsterdam and transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Belgian soldiers took charge of the Dutch-Belgian border last night and were received enthusiastically by the populace.

By The Associated Press.

Victory crowns the Allied arms on every battle front. Northern Belgium is rapidly being cleared of the enemy by British and Belgian forces. Belgians have occupied Zeebrugge, crossed the Ghent-Bruges canal, and on their left have reached the Dutch frontier, where 15,000 Germans, cut off from retreat by the advance northward from Eecloo, are reported to have withdrawn into Holland, where they were interned.

Ghent, it is predicted from British headquarters, will fall at an early date, and the French, by a swift stroke along an extended line have put their forces within two miles of Tournai. Thielt is in the hands of the French, despite stubborn enemy resistance, as also in the high ground around about.

British troops have crossed the Selle river, have recaptured Solesmes and have had hard fighting not only in the section around that town but at St. Python, to the east. Here the British have captured more than 2,600 prisoners.

Since the beginning of the operations in Flanders the Allies have made an advance of more than thirty miles over a thirty-six-mile front, clearing all of Western Flanders of the enemy.

Massed Beyond Le Cateau

Fighting desperately to hold their positions to the north and south of Le Cateau, the Germans on a front of forty miles have massed nearly a half million men. Their line is vital to the Germans, but it is just as vital to the success of the Allied arms, which steadily are pushing the enemy back and breaking through at strategical points.

The British third army is smashing its way forward to the south of Valenciennes. Success so far has attended this effort and the turning of this line will prove a source of great danger to vast masses of German troops holding territory to the north and south.

The American forces operating in conjunction with the British north of Wassigny, have advanced to the Sambre-Oise canal. They occupied Regnicourt east of St. Souplet, at the point of the bayonet. Wave after wave of machine gunners faced the Americans, who inflicted enormous losses on them. West of the Meuse, American activity was confined to the concentration of captured positions.

Take New Territory.

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Oct. 20.—(By The Associated Press.)—(5 p. m.)—The British army continued its attack today in conjunction with the Belgians to the north. The combined forces fought their way to the east of Staceghem and reached Vichte, lying northeast of Courtrai and are still pushing on rapidly.

The Anglo-Belgians are almost east of Deerlyck, Sweveghem and Straete. The third army in its attack had captured by early afternoon nearly a thousand prisoners.

While the Belgians, French and British were driving the Germans rapidly to the east in the direction of Ghent, which is being approached both from the west and the southwest, the British third army, attacking at 2 o'clock this morning, smashed its way eastward to the south of Valenciennes. The success of this operation, which seems assured, means the turning of the Valenciennes line and endangers all the German forces northward to Flanders and southward to the Oise canal, behind which the Germans have begun to retreat from other British forces and the Americans.

Cannot Hold Scheldt

This thrust will serve to upset the known German plan of trying to hold the line east of the Scheldt, in which the enemy is retiring hastily from what once was the Lille salient.

Reports from the Flanders front indicate Ghent soon will be recovered. Already the Allied guns are hammering the Germans on all sides; cyclist and cavalry patrols are sweeping ahead in front of the infantry, drawing closer and closer.

The Germans were driven out of the northwest corner of Flanders much sooner than they expected, for captured orders show they intended to hold the line of Zeebrugge-Bruges-Thielt, but were unable to resist the terrific Allied pressure.

Much Booty Taken

Thousands of civilians have been liberated by the Belgians and French and masses of booty, which the Germans had no time to carry away, fell into their hands.

It is considered quite possible, that the Germans will try to make several successive stands in Belgium and one line of resistance which likely will comprise Antwerp, Brussels and Namur, on which much work is being done. At the same time it is worth nothing that the Germans are laboring frantically in preparing a defensive line on their own frontier, especially in the neighborhood of Aix-la-Chapelle and Liege.

Advance on Machine Guns

The operation of the third army was characterized by most severe fighting, for the Germans realized the importance of trying to delay the British here. Regardless of enemy resistance, however, the British gained the high ground to the east of the line from which they were advancing against a perfect storm of machine gun bullets fired from advantageous positions. The machine guns were cleared out with great rapidity and great numbers of Germans were killed. The fighting was especially fierce in the neighborhood of St. Python, where many barricades had been erected hastily.

South of Le Cateau the British and Americans are continuing their successes of the past two days. American patrols, pushing out from the Mazinghe area, have reached the banks of the Oise canal. The German artillery in this region has been quite active and many towns, including Bazuel, have been heavily shelled. There were civilians in some of these, so their speedy removal was necessary, the Germans disregarding their presence.

Cross the Lys

North of Courtrai, the British second army is across the Lys river at several places and making good progress, while the first army has crossed the Selle river, near Haspres and Saulzoir and continued driving onward.

From in front of Denain this army is pushing frontally for Valenciennes in cooperation with the third army's attack southward.

Obviously the Germans intended to defend the east bank of the Scheldt, for they trenched and wired it. But there are strong indications that the enemy had little faith in his ability to hold the line long for all the bridges are ready for speedy demolition. A few fires still are visible at Tournai and the surrounding country, showing that the enemy is burning stores. The Germans also are stripping the country of everything imaginable and are burning what they have been unable to remove. Cattle taken from the peasants are being driven eastward and farmers' haystacks have been burned.

In Turcoing, where there were thousands of civilians, scenes occurred similar to those at Lille, the citizens exhibiting intense joy at their liberation.

Destroying Industries

The Germans are showing plainly their intentions by removing and destroying machinery of industrial works; they apparently have the idea of stifling French competition in the future. In the looting of private houses, they have displayed their customary fondness for such things as clocks, silverware and family ornaments. Even crucifixes have been taken from the homes of the poorer classes.

The Germans have carried off virtually the entire male population of the districts which they evacuated capable of doing any work. All the prisoners say peace is expected any day.

The Germans behaved the same in Ostend as elsewhere. The German commandant, who was hated cordially by the civilians, imposed fines for the smallest offences, such as being out of bed after 9 o'clock at night. Twenty-six million francs were extorted from

Tschaikovsky Again Chosen as Provisional Leader

ARCHANGEL, Friday, Oct. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The government in northern Russia again has been reorganized and the supreme power again conferred on Nicholas Tschaikovsky. Colonel Duroff will retain his position as governor-general and military commander in the region of the north.

The reorganized ministry follows.

Tschaikovsky, president of the provisional government and minister of foreign affairs and agriculture; Colonel Duroff, governor-general, military commander, minister of war, minister of the interior, and minister of communications, posts and telegraphs; Prince Kourpatkin, temporary minister of finance; Metodiev, minister of commerce and industry and of provisions; S. N. Gorodetski, minister of justice; P. Guboff, minister of public instruction.

With the exception of Premier Tschaikovsky, all the ministers belong to bourgeois parties. In addition to the cabinet, there is an advisory council of fifteen, representing all social strata and all parties.

In Archangel, the elections recently held for members of the Duma resulted in a large majority of the socialists, although the bourgeois vote was larger than ever before.

The new cabinet meets with general approval from the Allied diplomatic corps here.

YOUNG AMERICA IN KHAKI MAKES LOAN RECORD

Herbert Kutner Leads Marine Record With 66 Bonds and $11,600

Young America in khaki—the Boy Scouts of America and the Marine Scouts—jumped into the Liberty Loan drive during the last week and fought with the vigor of Pershing's Yanks in France to carry Fresno over the top in the offensive against the morale of the Hun people and to gain enough money to pay the way of our boys to Berlin.

The High School Cadets worked like tigers on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and the Home Guards rounded up many thousands of dollars by stopping every man without a Liberty Loan button and demanding the reason why.

No record of the achievement of this uniformed army of loan workers has been kept. Two divisions kept a record of their work—the Boy Scouts and the Marine Scouts—and although the Boy Scouts are not ready to announce their big total yet, the Marine Scouts were reported yesterday by R. J. Quigley, superintendent of playgrounds, to have sold 184 bonds representing a total of $19,450.

With a sale of 66 bonds amounting to $11,600 to his credit, Herbert Kutner, of the Washington company of Marine Scouts, holds the record in the Marine Scout body. Roy Gerard, of the Normal School company, ranks second with 21 bonds and a total of $1,550, and Elza Nidever, also of the Washington company, and John Vincent, of the Normal, tied for third place with a record of $1,000. Nidever sold 16 bonds to the public and Vincent 20 to the members of his own family.

Total Record Given

The record of the different companies, together with the totals, follows:

Total amount of bonds sold:	$19,450
Total number of bonds sold	184
Total number of bonds sold by Washington company	111
Total amount of bonds sold by Washington company	$14,150
Total number of bonds sold by Normal company	48
Total amount of bonds sold by Normal company	$ 3,500
Total number of bonds sold by Dickey company	17
Total amount of bonds sold by Dickey company	$ 1,400
Total number of bonds sold by Holmes company	8
Total amount of bonds sold by Holmes company	$ 400

"When it is considered that the Marine Scouts were not allowed to begin their canvass until the last seven days and that their work was of a clean-up nature as it were, it is all the more commendable, said R. L. Quigley, superintendent of playgrounds, yesterday. Over one-half the bonds which the boys have sold were sold to people who had already bought, and the boys succeeded in making them dig down a little deeper, which speaks well for their personal powers. It has taken time and energy for the boys, but they have enjoyed every minute of their campaign and will be on the job to redouble their efforts at any other bond issues that may come in the future.

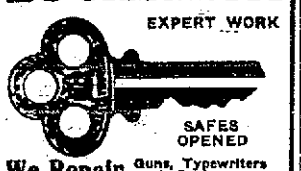

"The playground department, which has sponsored the Marine Scout movement in Fresno, is exceedingly proud of the showing that the boys have made.

"When it is considered that the companies could not be called together on account of the epidemic, which is raging, their accomplishment is still greater appreciated. All the instructions had to be given individually over the phone and the enthusiasm and the systematic work was hindered, to a great extent from this fact, however, the showing the boys have made needs no excuses, as the figures of the bonds sold stand for this.

AMBROSE FUNERAL TOMORROW.

Cearley Thanks His Co-Workers in Big Fourth Loan Drive

With Fresno city safely over the top of its fourth Liberty Loan quota, the people who responded to the nations' call are mainly deserving of thanks, but not of my thanks, because it would be presumptuous indeed for me to thank any one for being a loyal American citizen, for doing his full duty as Fresnans have a habit of doing, or for taking his part in the battle line at home for the boys over there. No one in this drive has given anything. Many thousands have invested money in the best securities in the world and will receive in return for their performance of their patriotic duty every cent that they have invested, together with 4¼ per cent interest.

But many who took part in the big drive just ended actually gave something to their country—gave their services tirelessly for three weeks, practically abandoning their private affairs to persuade those who were slow to realize their sense of duty that it was necessary for them to lend every cent they could spare to their government to help bring the war to a quick and decisive end.

And these men I want to take occasion to thank with all my heart. I mean the 26 captains and their 300 assistants who made up my campaign force and who made such a thorough canvass of the city, devoting every hour of every business day to the drive which yesterday reached such a successful conclusion. I want to thank them for the wonderful work they accomplished and for the loyal way they worked with me. It was indeed a pleasure to be so closely associated with such earnest 100 per cent Americans for the three weeks of the campaign.

CHARLES T. CEARLEY,
Director City Liberty Loan Campaign.

CANADIAN HEROES GET THEIR BONDS

The four Canadian "Hun Chasers"—Sergeant Welsh, Gunner Roberts and Privates Stanley and Urquhart, who did so much to help Fresno over the top by singing over and over again at the different tanks last Thursday and telling their stories as often as the sale needed boosting, who sang at the Treitz meeting and again at the Private Peat meeting, left last night for Los Angeles. And before they left each was presented with a $50 bond, for which a great subscription in dollars, half dollars, quarters, dimes and even nickels and pennies was taken at the Private Peat meeting. Private Peat's $50 bond, at his request, will be turned over to some charity for children or babies.

One Canadian soldier was overlooked, when the subscription was taken by Publicity Director Ricker at the big Private Peat mass meeting—the little Canadian of the famous 4th brigade, who was captured by Postmaster Earl Hughes for the Chateau Thierry tank at the postoffice corner. He was the pet soldier of the postmaster and of Yir Frien' Scotty, and when Scotty learned that Sergeant John H. Jurg had been forgotten because he had slipped quietly out of town Thursday night, he made up his mind that no man who had made 145 trips over the top in France and about twice that many trips to the top of the Chateau Thierry tank to "spiel for bonds," should be overlooked. So a conference was held between Scotty and Postmaster Hughes and within half an hour on Saturday the $50 required for a bond for Sergeant Jurg had been collected by each of the following contributing $5:

J. Ed. Hughes, Earl Hughes, Milton H. Possons, H. A. Goddard, Roy C. Traber, George Waterman, Berton Einstein, Dan Brown, Jr., Ray Pullian and Yir Frien' Scotty.

"LIBERATION LOAN" OPENS WITH FETE IN PARIS

Mayors of Rheims and Lille Given Tremendous Ovations

American Troops Given Honor Place in Great Parade

PARIS, Oct. 20.—With enthusiasm unabated by a pouring rain, Paris today celebrated the liberation of French towns and the opening of a campaign for the new French loan. American troops with the flag of the 30ist infantry headed a parade of Allied soldiers through the streets. They were followed by Belgians, Brazilians and British and by Greeks who arrived in Paris today from the Macedonian front. Polish, Portuguese, Serbian and Czecho-Slovak soldiers also were in line.

As the people awaited the beginning of the speech in the Place De La Concorde, exchanging bantering, witty remarks, a tall, distinguished looking white-haired man was seen forcing his way toward the stand. A policeman halted him.

"I am the mayor of Lille," said the man simply. It was De La Salle, who arrived unheralded. He received such an ovation as never before was witnessed.

"It will remain in my memory until the end of my days," said the mayor afterward, "It is sufficient to erase from my mind four years of nightmare and servitude."

Today was the first fete day Paris has observed since the war began. On account of recent events on the front the loan has been christened the "Liberation loan."

The mayor of Rheims, greeting M. De La Salle, said:

"We have suffered for France. Long live France!"

M. De La Salle made a short speech. His voice, enfeebled by four years of suffering, barely carried beyond those standing near him, but people further away took their cue from the cheering of those close to thes peaker. The address was interrupted continually by the affectionate expressions and cheers of the crowd.

"For four years we asked one another, 'Shall it be tomorrow?'" said M. De La Salle. "That morrow came Thursday. I was awakened during the night by a sergeant who presented a requisition for 2,000 suits of underwear. When I reached the street, the Germans had gone without that particular underwear."

Mayor De La Salle bore more than 10,000 letters sent by the long suffering citizens of Lille to relatives and friends. The letters were being delivered tonight.

OUTLINE PLANS FOR WAR WORK DRIVE

Campaign to Begin on November 11 and Last One Week

Open-Air Meeting to Be Held on Elks' Roof Garden

Preliminary plans for the United War Work campaign which begins on November 11 and lasts for one week, ending on November 18, were discussed at a meeting of the campaign committee yesterday. The committee outlined the methods to be adopted in conducting the campaign.

In order to complete the campaign committee a number of names were considered as specially fitted to serve. The committee, it was announced, when complete will include all towns in the county, and will consist of about 50 members. As a step towards completing the committee the present committee has divided itself into two sections which will cover the entire county today, visiting every town, to name a local chairman and vice-chairman, who will be empowered to select the local committee.

The local chairman and vice chairman will represent their district on the campaign committee. H. E. Patterson, campaign manager, stated that no committee would be needed in Coalinga for the campaign as that district has a war chest, and will handle its own war chest fund. In Selma the committee that handles the Red Cross and other war activities is already in operation and it will be unnecessary, Patterson said, to appoint a new committee.

An open-air meeting is to be held on the roof garden of the Elks' club on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Patterson announces, for the purpose of hearing Dr. Wheeler of San Francisco, who will give an address on the work of the various war activities overseas. Dr. Wheeler is reputed to be an eloquent speaker, and has had personal experience of the war work carried on. He visited the battle fields on behalf of the United States government. The roof garden has been donated by the Elks' club for the purpose on account of the order of the board of health ordering the stoppage of all public meetings in enclosed buildings as a precaution against the spread of influenza. All persons interested in the coming campaign are invited to attend.

Mr. Patterson stated that headquarters for the campaign are to be secured down town. The representatives of all the departments will be at the headquarters' office. Those representatives will consist of the men in charge of advertising, speakers, publicity, treasury, city organization. A new bureau for county organization, will be represented, and an organizer will have charge of the rural school districts.

Among the features of the new drive will be the presence of Liberty Boys and Liberty Girls, who will be expected to earn and raise $5 each towards the fund. There will be a person in charge of the students' campaign.

No quota of the national drive has yet been fixed. To do this the committee will take into account the bank deposits, population, school census, the assessed valuations, and will arrive at the amount to be raised in the county within the next few days.

J. STITT WILSON HERE ON SICKLIST

So ill that he was unable to return to Berkeley Saturday, J. Stitt Wilson, formerly mayor of Berkeley and Socialist candidate for governor, is now stopping at the Hotel Fresno, where he is being attended by Mrs. Wilson. He complained of having a bad cold Saturday.

tier, between Luxemburg and Holland, is dominated by Coblenz, which Marshal Foch considers the key to Germany. In this area is Bonn, a fortress of the first class; Cologne, protected by a broad belt of entrenchments and a series of strongholds, along the western side of the Rhine until that river passes into Holland.

Rhine Last Defense

Should the three lines mentioned be broken, or should the Allies break through between Metz and the Swiss frontier, the Germans would be compelled to fall back into Germany proper or, to the south, to cross the Rhine. This historic river is really the western moat of the Teutonic castle. Its whole eastern bank is strongly fortified and would be capable of a protracted defense. This line of resistance begins at Lahr and runs down the Rhine through Offenburg, Rastatt, Karlsruhe, Mannheim, Darmstadt, Wiesbaden, Bendorf, Kulk, Deusburg and Wesel.

Would Save Men

In retiring from their present positions, the Germans will be able to shorten their lines materially and thus increase the number of men available for resistance along their new fronts. The Hunding line is about seventy miles shorter than the Hindenburg system. The line of the Meuse would shorten the front by twenty miles more, while the Germans, if they should retire to their own frontier, would be able still to shorten their front by thirty-five miles.

This shortening of the line will be of tremendous importance in future operations by the Allies. It would make up, to a large degree, for the heavy losses inflicted upon the Germans during the campaign of the past summer and give them man power that would be a formidable barrier to an Allied advance.

The Meuse, the Aisne and the Scheldt rivers and the canals in Belgium in the vicinity of Brussels and Antwerp also will be valuable adjuncts to the conduct of defensive fighting by the Germans. With the developments of the tank as an offensive weapon, a river as a first defense line adds tremendously to the strength of a position.

HOW TO USE VICK'S VAPORUB IN TREATING SPANISH INFLUENZA

The Influenza Germs Attack the Lining of the Air Passages. When VapoRub Is Applied Over Throat and Chest the Medicated Vapors Loosen the Phlegm, Open the Air Passages and Stimulate the Mucus Membrane to Throw Off the Germs.

In Addition, VapoRub is Absorbed Through and Stimulates the Skin, Attracting the Blood to the Surface and Thus Aids in Reducing the Congestion Within.

CALL A PHYSICIAN—GO TO BED—STAY QUIET—DON'T WORRY.

There is no Occasion for Panic—Influenza Itself Has a Very Low Percentage of Fatalities, Not Over One Death out of Every Four Hundred Cases, According to the N. C. Board of Health. The Chief Danger Lies in Complications Arising, Attacking Principally Patients in a Run Down Condition—Those Who Don't go to Bed Soon Enough, or Those Who Get up too Early.

Spanish Influenza which appeared in Spain in May has all the appearance of grip or la grippe, which has swept over the world in numerous epidemics as far back as history runs. Hippocrates refers to an epidemic in 412 B. C. which is regarded by many to have been influenza. Every century has had its attacks. Beginning with 1831, this country has had five epidemics, the last in 1889-90.

THE SYMPTOMS

Grip, or influenza as it is now called, usually begins with a chill followed by aching, feverishness and sometimes nausea and dizziness, and a general feeling of weakness and depression. The temperature is from 100 to 104, and the fever usually lasts from three to five days. The germs attack the mucus membrane or lining of the air passages—nose, throat and bronchial tubes—there is usually a hard cough, especially bad at night, often times a sore throat or tonsilitis, and frequently all the appearances of a severe head cold.

THE TREATMENT

Go to bed at the first symptoms, not only for your own sake but to avoid spreading the disease to others—take a purgative, eat plenty of nourishing food, remain perfectly quiet and don't worry. Quinine, asprin or Dover's Powder, etc., may be administered by the physician's directions to relieve the aching. But there is no cure or specific for influenza—the disease must run its course, but nature herself will throw off the attack if only you keep up your strength. The chief danger lies in the complications which may arise. Influenza so weakens the bodily resistance that there is danger of pneumonia or bronchitis developing and sometimes inflammation of the middle ear, or heart affections. For these reasons, it is very important that the patient remain in bed until his strength returns—stay in bed at least two days or more after the fever has left you, or if you are over 50 or not strong, stay in bed four days or more, according to the severity of the attack.

EXTERNAL APPLICATIONS

In order to stimulate the lining of the air passages to throw off the grip germs, to aid in loosening the phlegm and keeping the air passages open, thus making the breathing easier, Vick's VapoRub will be found effective. Hot, wet towels should be applied over the throat, chest and back between the shoulder blades to open the pores. Then VapoRub should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red, spread on thickly and covered with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck as the heat of the body liberates the ingredients in the form of vapors. These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the parts affected. At the same time, VapoRub is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, attracting the blood to the surface and thus aids in relieving the congestion within.

HOW TO AVOID THE DISEASE

Evidence seems to prove that this is a germ disease, spread principally by human contact, chiefly through coughing, sneezing or spitting. So avoid persons having colds—which means avoiding crowds—common drinking cups, roller towels, etc. Keep up your bodily strength by plenty of exercise in the open air, and good food. Above all, keep free from colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and render them much better breeding places for the germs.

Use Vick's VapoRub at the very first sign of a cold. For a head cold, melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors, or better still, use VapoRub in a benzoin steam kettle. If this is not available, use an ordinary teakettle. Fill half full of boiling water, put in half a teaspoon of VapoRub from time to time—keep the kettle just slowly boiling, and inhale the steam arising.

NOTE: Vick's VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist, who found how to combine in salve from Menthol and Camphor with such essential oils as Eucalyptus, Thyme, Cubbebs, etc., so that when the salve is applied to the body heat, these ingredients are liberated in the form of vapors.

VapoRub is comparatively new in New York, New England and a few western states, where it is just now being introduced. In other sections of the country, however, it is the standard home remedy in over a million homes for all forms of cold troubles—more than six million jars were sold last year.

It is particularly recommended for children's croup or colds, since it is externally applied and, therefore, can be used as freely as desired without the slightest harmful effects. VapoRub can be had in three sizes—30c, 60c, $1.20—at all druggists.

TWO THOUSAND CASES IN KERN

No Prospect of Lifting of Quarantine Very Soon

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 20.—The lifting of the quarantine in Kern county appears no nearer than it did several days ago. County Health Officers Morris said last night that conditions had not improved, so far as he could learn.

According to an estimate placed by Dr. S. F. Smith, there are at least 1,000 cases in Bakersfield alone. Other physicians besides backing up these figures, state that there are approximately 2,000 cases in the county.

"It is a serious mistake to make light of the influenza epidemic," said Dr. Smith last night. "On Friday I had five new cases and today six more. In all I have thirty-seven cases and I am sure I have no more cases than other doctors. So far as I can see there has been no change for the better. The situation is really serious. Never before has Kern county had such an epidemic."

Discussing the situation County Health Officer Morris said:

"You may say for me that there has been no improvement in conditions. The county outside of incorporated towns, is still under quarantine and will remain under quarantine until the contagion is well in hand.

"The quarantine covers every form of gathering. People will not be permitted to congregate in numbers. While I have not been strict about open air meetings and picnics in the country I am apt to put a stop to them at any hour. No meeting indoors or in tents will be allowed under any conditions."

NORTH FORK

NORTHFORK, Oct. 20.—Friday afternoon a heavy gust of wind set in from the east and continued to blow hard all night. Saturday morning its force was abated only in part. Several telephone lines were put out of use, also the power company's light wire from Northfork. A tree was thrown across No. 2 flume, resulting in a break which required a considerable force of hen to repair. The wind was not felt at Power House No. 1.

General Manager E. A. Quinn of the power company spent the week before the wind storm making a general inspection of all the Northfork properties of the company.

Mrs. Julia T. Shinn has returned home after a two weeks' visit with her daughter at Ukiah.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldrup are selling their household furniture, preparatory to leaving Northfork.

Walter Leedy, lineman at power house No. 3, has received a telgram from Mrs. Leedy in Nebraska, saying that their son Donald is not epected to live. Mr. Leedy leaves for Nebraska at once.

H. W. Lee, driver of the auto stage, has settled with his family in one of the McDonald cottages.

Operator McKinley Adams at No. 2 power house has severed his connection with the power company and is about to leave Northfork. Mrs. Adams has already gone.

Miss Grace Pinkerton, teacher at the Northfork school, has been joined by her mother, Mrs. Janies A. Pinkerton, and her small brother Edgar. The Pinkerton family is established in one of the Southfork hotel cottages.

Saturday Forest Supervisor M. A. Benedict attended the meeting of stockmen at Coarsegold.

Saturdy night Mrs. Mary Wright went home for the week-end to the Lone Cedar ranch, Coarsegold.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gates and son motored to Fresno at the end of the week to visit Mr. Gates' mother, who is recovering from a severe operation.

Mrs. A. J. McKellow has presented her resignation to the Northfork board of school trustees. In the course of the week Mr. and Mrs. McKellow will again take up residence in their former cottage at power house No. 3, where Mr. McKellow is employed as an operator.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuleir of Fresno are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Humphries at power house No. 1. Mrs. Humphries is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fuller.

Engineer Emil Newman of the San Joaquin Light and Power Company is in receipt of further word from Serg. A. J. Rinck ("Blackie") of the 18th engineers. With the letter came two characteristic copies of the engineers' regimental paper, "The Spiker."—"Blackie" is as enthusiastic as ever, and reports with pride that fourteen of Mr. Newman's 1916 crew are now with the army in France. George Duemhelmer, he writes, has already been 'over the top."

Church services have been discontinued at the chapel, but Sunday school opens at 3 p. m every Sunday.

It is reported that on October 10 Mary Chepo, daughter of Willie Chepo, became the bride of Jim Lewis of O'Neals. The couple were married in Fresno.

RUSH WORK ON VALLEY HIGHWAY

TIPTON, Oct. 20.—Grading on the last stretch of the valley highway is being rushed, the road having been plowed up close to the completed cement in town. North of Tipton the cement is being poured continually and a considerable stretch is about ready to be uncovered.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cavanagh were the hosts of a Hallowe'en party given at their home Friday night to Mr. Cavanagh's Bible class members. A large number were present and enjoyed the dainty refreshments and parlor games. The house was tastily decorated with Hallowe'en favors.

Many cases of severe colds are reported from every part of the community, but as yet none are officially diagnosed as Spanish influenza. It is quite possible that the local school will be closed next week.

The Ladies' Aid Society has decided to abandon the idea of serving a dinner on election day, November 5, on account of the fact that it is ill-advised to promote unnecessary gatherings during the period of epidemic.

Red Cross work opened up for the fall and winter on Friday last and much was accomplished on the local allotment of pajamas. The annual meeting for the elction of officers will be held Wednesday afternoon, October 23, when it is expected that the auxiliary will re-constitute itself into a branch in conformity with the new universal form of organization, so that the work will be more in harmony with the Tulare chapter and sister branches.

In keeping with all previous drives, Tipton district cheerfully went over the top in the fourth Liberty loan drive. Tipton has never demurred in either men, money or help.

POULTRY SHOW TO BE HELD IN SOUTH

COALINGA, Oct. 20.—The fourth annual State Poultry Show of the California State Poultry Breeders' Association, which was awarded to San Bernardino, has been transferred to Los Angeles, and will be held December 4 to 9 under the auspices of the Los Angeles Poultry Association. The third annual state show was held last winter at Coalinga and was the best of the season. This year's show will be no exception as the southern fanciers are preparing to stage the largest and best show ever held on the coast, where the best birds from every section of the state will meet in competition for the coveted prizes.

COALINGA

COALINGA, Oct. 20.—Lieut. Dr. C. T. Mountford of this city has received his commission and left yesterday for the south to assume his duties with the government.

T. J. Crumpton, general manager of the American Petroleum Company, was a business visitor here yesterday, looking after the interests of the company in this field.

Manson McCormick, a candidate for one of the judgeships at the coming election, spent several days in this vicinity this past week, meeting his friends in and around Coalinga.

R. C. Baker, who has been confined to his home with an attack of the Spanish influenza, is reported today as being greatly improved.

Miss Frances Kirkpatrick, who is attending business college in Fresno, is home for a few days' visit with her parents in this city.

E. G. Dobson, a former resident of this city, was a business visitor here this week from his home in Fresno.

Mrs. Bellshaw has received word that her brother Ralph was transferred to Siberia from Camp Fremont.

CHOWCHILLA

CHOWCHILLA, Oct. 20.—Five airplanes sailing along in a flock towards Fresno Saturday morning attracted a great deal of attention here.

In Chowchilla district the fourth Liberty loan call was over-subscribed, as in each previous instance, and then the people helped out yet a little more. Even wit that record it is not improbable that some fell a little short of what they might have done without much of a struggle.

Miss Lucile Gambrill, who has been in training at a school in San Francisco for government service, returned home Friday evening because of the school being closed on account of Spanish influenza.

Mrs. J. E. Buckholz is visiting at Sacramento this week.

There is a general feeling here that there ought to be no more dances or other public gatherings or entertainments until the danger of spreading influenza is past.

The new community service flag has forty-three stars. This list does not include the young men who went to Fresno, or elsewhere outside of the county, and enlisted in the regular army or navy. Several boys of the Chowchilla district answered the appeals for volunteers.

The Red Cross wants every family that has a member in the army in Europe to report as soon as possible. This is to enable the organization to see that each gets a Christmas package.

O. A. Robertson, president of the U. S. Farm Land Co., has been spending the greater part of the week here.

Manager Palmer of the Daniel Hayes Co., returned the first of the week from a trip to Chicago and Seattle.

FEDERAL AID WILL BE GIVEN DISTRICT

OAKDALE, Oct. 20.—The federal government is preparing to assist in the financing of irrigation districts in California, through the war fund to be created by the Chamberlain bill, but all such aid is to be extended only upon condition that large tracts of land in the districts are thrown open to settlement at reasonable prices.

This policy is indicated by A. N. Burch, engineer in charge of the Orland government project, who has been designated by the reclamation service to make an investigation of the reservoir needs of the irrigation districts of the state. Mr. Burch, a former Oakdale man, has spent several days here investigating the needs of the Oakdale district, and is expected to make a favorable report upon the local project. He has been especially interested in what is known as the Melones project, and the board has every hope that he will recommend to the government that the constitution of this reservoir and dam be financed by the reclamation service, as a war measure.

Mr. Burch has requested the district to provide data, which will be required of all districts asking government aid. This data includes:

Location and ownership of large tracts of land suitable for settlement under an increased water supply.

Prices asked for land in small subdivisions and large tracts.

Estimated average value of crops under irrigation.

Information as to whether owners of improved land, holding in excess of 160 acres, would be willing to place a limited price to settlers on such excess land should the government finance additional storage.

KERMAN

KERMAN, Oct. 20.—The Kerman Red Cross chapter has just received a shipment of yarn and is desirous that as many knitters as possible call for the material as soon as possible. A call has been made for socks for the boys. Mrs. C. A. Miller, chairman of the knitting department, will issue the yarn to those wishing to knit.

The dance which the Red Cross chapter of Kerman had planned for Saturday night, was postponed on account of the Spanish influenza scare.

Homan of Fresno, manager of the Fresno County Council of Defense, and Capt. M. C. Gallaher, also of Fresno, will be present to give instruction along military lines. The local committee, Oliver Dalbotten, R. S. Elliott and J. A. Johnson, are making plans for the enrolling of a large number of local registrants in the military training. More than 100 men have been recruited in this service. In addition there is also a large enrollment in the first aid classes which are being conducted under the same authority. Regular drills are held on Mondays and Thursdays of each week.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—A marked decrease in the number of deaths from influenza and influenza-pneumonia was shown by the report of Dr. L. M. Powers, city health commissioner tonight. Only sixteen deaths had been reported today as against twenty-eight the day before. These were divided into eight deaths from influenza, four from influenza-pneumonia and four from pneumonia. Six hundred and sixty-eight new cases were reported as against 471 for the previous twenty-four hours.

Since the epidemic started 6265 cases have been reported with 129 fatalities. Among the deaths yesterday was Dr. Maude Morrison, interne in charge of the influenza ward at the county hospital.

The Rumors Being Spread Against Me To Influence Your Vote---

Are Absolutely False

Make the Coroner's Office Independent by Electing

Dr. G. L. LONG

An effort is being made to try to make you believe that I am tied to an undertaking firm—that I will favor this firm—that the Coroner's office will not be moved from this undertaking establishment if I am elected.

These Are Stories Without A Leg of Foundation

I emphatically declare them in this sworn affidavit, to be absolute falsehoods.

State of California, County of Fresno—ss.

DR. G. L. LONG, nominee for County Coroner, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I emphatically and positively deny the rumors which are being circulated that I am connected with an undertaking firm of Fresno and that the office of Coroner will not be moved if I am elected.

On the contrary, I solemnly aver that I will distribute impartially the Coroner's cases among the undertakers of the city and county, and that the Coroner's office will not be maintained in any undertaking establishment in case of my election to the office of Coroner.

G. L. Long

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 18th day of October, 1918.

(Seal) GERTRUDE JACOBS,

I ask you to close your ears to false rumors. Just remember that Dr. Long himself assures you that he is an absolutely Independent Candidate for the office of County Coroner, positively free from any ties whatever to any undertaking firm, asking for your vote on the sound fact that the DOCTOR is the logical man for the office.

Elect DR. G. L. LONG Coroner

CABLE INTERRUPTED

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The old cable line between Manila and Hong Kong, which Admiral Dewey cut in 1898, is temporarily out of commission, interrupting direct connection between the United States and South China, it was announced here today by the Commercial Cable Company. The interruption is believed to be due to natural causes. Communications with Hong Kong and South China are being routed via Shanghai until the cable is repaired.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Oct. 19.—The city and county of Santa Barbara combined have gone over the top in the fourth Liberty Loan drive to the tune of $100,000, according to the committee tonight. The quota for the county was $3,066,250, while the city of Santa Barbara was placed at $1,745,000. Not the Kaiser's latest peace bait,—not the heavy rainfall on the bean crop, not even the influenza scare have succeeded in wresting from the county her record of enthusiastic patriotism.

CROSSING THE RHINE

Whatever may be the steps now taken by the managers of the German state at Berlin, there can be little question that the ultimate determination of the responsible statesmen there will be for a last-ditch fight on the banks of the Rhine, if their armies are to be forced back that far. Possibly they do not yet, even to themselves, frame this determination—the situation which has caused the retreat from Northern France and will cause, within a month, their entire retreat from Belgium, is still too new to have been fully thought out. But the German empire is not yet badly enough whipped to permit, it would seem, of an unconditional surrender. And that is what the demands of the president of the United States, and of the Entente Allies, amount to.

In spite of the pleasure which we have felt in the Allied victories of the last three months, we realize that the severest part of the Allied drive is yet to come. Germany has for two generations of men been prepared both for an offensive and a defensive campaign against her neighbors. Her attempt to overrun France and cripple Great Britain, and put the United States in a subsidiary position in world influence has failed. Now she finds that she must fall back on her defensive lines. It would be suicidal to suppose that they are weak. The territory west of the Rhine is netted with the structures that are to protect the empire from invasion. They will, of course, be conquered some time this or next year by General Foch. But it will not do for us at home to have any overconfidence as to the price that must be paid.

We have one remarkably strong arm to use against the Germans in attacking their last and firmest defense line, the forts of the Rhine valley. This is the independent air fleet that is being formed. Just as the defenses of Belgium, which had been thought a generation ago to be impregnable, crumbled under the blows of the modern German artillery, so the weak spot in the German defense system will be found in its failure to keep up with the march of progress. All the latest German effort has been directed toward the offensive in France and not to the defensive within its own borders. So, while its forts may be contrived to resist, for months, the attacks of Allied cannonading, it will be helpless against the air force that America and Western Europe will send against it.

Much of the hesitation now shown in Germany against making the "last-ditch" fight, is caused by the hammering of the Allies' airplanes. Of what use, ask the Germans in Prussia and Saxony and Bavaria, are forts along the Rhine, if great castles filled with machine guns and bombs can sail over them at a mile or more in height, and destroy cities at will.

The first line of war against Germany has been the British navy, on the sea. The second line has been the growing armies of democracy on the plains of France. The third, it may well be, will be the squadrons of air cruisers, bringing the war home to the men who have started this world conflagration.

A REAL ISSUE

With the election of the right candidate to practically every office already as good as accomplished; with the dry" issue already won, and most of the other issues either settled or unimportant; with the Liberty loan and the "flu" and the glimmerings of peace through the smoke of war obliterating all thought of politics—is there anything left to make it worth while to remember that election day is coming?

Just one thing. The Health Insurance amendment is a real issue, and if it is passed it will make a real beginning of a real change for the better in American life. It is really worth California's while to stop, even in the midst of world crisis, to vote to authorize its legislature to act, when peace comes, on one of the great reconstructive measures of peace.

It is perhaps, not an opportune time to have to raise this issue, when it can get so little attention, but that was determined by the legislature two years ago, when no one knew that we were to be at war. Moreover, while it is not an opportune time to get people to realize its importance, it is an uniquely opportune time to demonstrate the reality of its importance to whoever will listen. For there was never a time when this nation and the world had a good reason for knowing the value to society of each individual, and the duty of society to the individual as now. If we can save some of the wreckage of life, we now know that it is worth doing.

Sickness as a health problem we have been dealing with, more or less badly, since the days of Hippocrates. But sickness as a poverty and social problem, we have until recently scarcely realized. Each of us knew individual cases of families formerly self-supporting which had been pushed to or over the poverty line by the sickness of the breadwinner. When the line was reached, the sick man and his family became dependent on charity or drifted into vagabondage of one sort or another as might happen, and we dealt with the abandoned the resultant human wreckage. We recognized it as a personal, and even as a social misfortune, but scarcely as a social problem. Now we know better.

When Lloyd George made his great campaign for social insurance in England, he was fought by the medical profession and by the "better classes" quite as violently as some of the same elements are fighting the same movement in California now. But the working people and the far-sighted thinking people were with him, and his genius for leadership carried first the nation and then parliament. The opposition on the part of the medical profession was so bitter that the British Medical Association organized a boycott and its members signed pledges never to practice under the act. But within two days after the act had passed, half of them had already enrolled themselves to practice under it, and nearly all the rest followed soon after. Now they are virtually unanimous for it, and say that without it they could not possibly have maintained the health and morale of England, to bear the strain of war. What they have done is to reduce the civil death rate, in the last two years, to less than it ever was before.

There is no Lloyd-George to campaign California for this measure, and just now, nobody can campaign California for anything. But the people of California can, if they will, vindicate California's title to leadership. They have in a multitude of perfunctory, inconsequential or settled issues and candidacies, one real constructive opportunity. If they rise to it now, California leads. If they do not, some one else will, and we shall follow, later.

PRESENTING CLAIMS

Now that the power of German militarism is breaking, all the nations on her borders that have been held in terror for so many years, are gaining courage to voice their wrongs. Now Denmark is mentioned as bringing forward claims for the fulfilment of an agreement made with Prussia after the war of 1864, by which the inhabitants of the provinces that Prussia tore away from Denmark should have an opportunity to choose what allegiance they should pay.

It is hardly fair, as some do, to ridicule the new bravery of these small nations, now that their big neighbor is on the run. It might have been a fine thing for Denmark to have presented her claim against Germany in 1914, instead of now. It might have been a fine thing for Holland to have entered into agreements with Great Britain in spite of the bullying of Germany, which it is well known was waiting only for a convenient opportunity to seize control over the mouth of the Rhine. It might have been a fine thing for Norway to resent the violation of her shore waters by German submarines.

Rumania actually did join against the powers that had tyrannized over her nationals. Greece was only prevented from doing likewise by the treason of her chief executive, the king. But this was a degree of bravery, especially considering the way the fortunes of war were going two or three years ago, that we could not demand of feeble peoples living within the shadow of tyranny.

The peace council, however, will be an opportunity to right many such wrongs that have been held in abeyance in the courts of world diplomacy for generations. The border line between Germany and Denmark, for instance, should be decided not by the arbitrary power of either of those peoples, but by the principles of human justice, as supported by the judgments of all the impartial nations assembled at the council table. It should not matter whether the Kiel canal is coveted by Prussia or not. If the people on both sides of that strip of land object to incorporation within the German empire, their claim should be heard and approved.

C.

Batchelier, who had service medals for the Boer war and the Zulu rebellion of 1906, said he and several companions on a sapping operation were captured after digging themselves out of a sap the Germans had blown up.

CLEARING NORTHERN BELGIUM OF HUNS

LONDON, Saturday, Oct. 19.—British and Belgian forces rapidly are clearing northern Belgium of the enemy, according to tonight's official statement relative to operations in Belgium. This reads:

"During today's fighting, the British, Belgian and French armies, under command of King Albert of Belgium, has been able to develop the results obtained in the last six days.

"The Belgian army has occupied Zeebrugge and Heyse and stormed the town of Bruges. Elsewhere the Belgians have crossed the Ghent-Bruge canal. On their left they have reached the Dutch frontier and on the right are half way from Bruges to Ghent.

"French forces have carried the town of Thielt and the high ground in that vicinity, in spite of stubborn resistance of the enemy, who endeavored to bar the way to the Lys. At the end of the day the French had reached the line of Hulle-Vineat and had advanced along the Lys to Gramme, Gotthem and Wielleke.

"The second British army has cleared up Courtrai, carrying its line nearly four miles east of there. To the south, the British have reached the Courtrai-Tournai road and, although all communications have been destroyed by the Germans, have advanced almost up to the Scheldt river.

"Since beginning operations in Flanders, the Allied armies have advanced thirty miles over a front of thirty-six miles. All of western Flanders as well as the Belgian coast has been cleared of the enemy."

of Japan along the popular lines which the war has so indisputably demonstrated as the world's tendency and the desire of the peoples of the world.

"The voice of the people must be obeyed and the press is the great medium for that voice."

He declared he and his colleagues would labor constantly on the future questions arising out of the present war. Although the alliance with Great Britain would remain the cornerstone of Japan's foreign relations, he said, he wished to emphasize that his special effort would be to promote friendly relations with the United States.

Closer to America

"Please tell that to the American people as conveniently as you can," he said, "because my colleagues and I keenly desire to see Japan and America brought closer together and every shadow of misunderstanding removed."

Premier Hara produced the impression that Japan, which for the last fifty years largely has been ruled by bureaucrats, has entered upon a new and significant period of constitutional progress, in which popular opinion is more effectively to guide the nation's policies.

Beginning life as a newspaper reporter, Hara's attainment to the premiership is regarded as proving that the time has arrived when in Japan as in America, any citizen can hope to climb to the place of highest responsibility.

MAY SEEK STAFF JOBS IN 13 CITIES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Applicants for commissions in staff corps and departments of the army no longer need come to Washington to have their applications acted upon. General March, chief of staff, announced today that procurement of officers for all branches of the army has been centralized in the personnel branch of the general staff and that district headquarters have been established in thirteen principal cities to which applications can be made.

The district headquarters include San Francisco, 1020 Mills building, Los Angeles, 210 West Seventh street.

WILSON'S REPLY IS "HISTORIC"

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Commenting on the American reply to the Austro-Hungarian peace proposal, the Temps says:

"President Wilson's refusal is a historic event. No problem of this war is graver than the Austro-Hungarian question. On the solution it receives depends the security of our country, the future of Europe and the peace of the world. President Wilson lays aside at the outset all solutions previously suggested; he gives his word to the peoples directly. No one can hereafter withdraw it from them."

VLADIVOSTOK, Saturday, Oct. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Allied intelligence board, recently formed here, is doing excellent work in putting down pro-German propaganda and other work among the Russian population. A strict cable and postal censorship has been established and orders have been issued for registration of enemy aliens. Russian officials are co-operating in the work.

WAR GARDEN TALKS
CULTURE OF BEETS

By Richard Schmidt
Supervisor of Vocational Agriculture and War Gardens

Beets may be planted the year round except during the hottest months, in rows one foot apart and the plants from two to four inches apart in the row. The seed should be planted at the rate of about two ounces to 100 feet of row, thinning out later to the required distance. If the thinning is done early, or when the plants are three to four inches high, the beets will be larger, but some prefer to wait, allowing the beets to grow thickly until the thinnings are large enough for greens. This practice injures the growth of the root, but to some extent the loss is made up by the gain of the greens.

The soil should be well worked, for the beet has a tap root which must penetrate the soil. This vegetable will endure considerable drought, but very dry as well as very wet land makes for poor quality. It should make a rapid and not a slow growth. A suitable variety for this locality is Crosby's Egyptian.

MUSIC-WITH-YOUR-WORK HELPS IN CINCINNATI PLANT

Western Newspaper Union.

The music-with-your-meals idea is being supplemented by the music-with-your-work theory which a Cincinnati dry-cleaning establishment is putting into practical effect. This enterprising firm has installed throughout its factory enough phonographs to provide lively entertainment the whole day long. It is a pleasant way of saying "speed up," and has the desired effect on the workers, who have taken to the idea with great zest. The idea is borrowed from South America where nearly every big factory has an orchestra play for the employes while they work.

Fresno's Yesterdays

Taken From the Files of the FRESNO REPUBLICAN

Forty Years Ago

Last Friday morning Mr. Geo. Rowell, brother of Dr. Rowell, left on the train for his old home in the East. He goes from here to Chicago, and thence to Bloomington. It looks a little suspicious when a single man goes East, but we do not think George will do anything rash.

Last Friday Professor Sanders gave a large watermelon as a prize to the scholar who stood up the longest in a spelling contest. He gave out historical names from the school history of the United States, and the pupils were required to spell the name and also state something concerning the person or place bearing the name. It was won by Miss Alice Daly.

Twenty Years Ago

The directors of the California Raisin Growers' association are reaching out for trade beyond the territory of the United States. In order to do that it is necessary to make prices to meet the competition of the Spanish raisins. In the United States there is no raisinous competition with the Spanish raisins, owing to the tariff, which, by the way, affords an object lesson to the producers of the benefits of protection. The directors, in order to afford the California raisins a market in Canada and Germany, have made a reduction in the price of goods shipped to those countries. The rebate consists of a reduction of a half cent a pound on one and two crown goods and a quarter off on three and four crown goods. On layers there is an additional rebate of a half cent a pound. It is estimated that 500 carloads of California raisins are shipped to Hamburg every year and also a large quantity to Canada.

Ten Years Ago

Acting under orders from Chief of Police Shaw, a squad of patrolmen under the leadership of Sergeant Tom Coyle, last night paid a visit to the redlight district and officially ordered the closing of the Japanese cribs. The order was made at 9 o'clock and within fifteen minutes every crib, numbering about forty, with fifty or sixty inmates, was closed securely and the district was as dark as night. The women obeyed immediately, not a dissenting word being heard, although all were noticeably surprised in receiving the order from the police department. No statement is given out concerning the reason for the sudden action, but it is learned that on last Sunday night, Chief Shaw, attired in plain clothes, and the Sergeant, visited the district with the result that when Sergeant Coyle reported for duty last night he was given orders to close up the district at once.

the inhabitants in fines and forced levies. During the German occupation, all the bathing machines were used for the storage of explosives and civilians were compelled to work in the submarine repair shops.

Ruins of Drydock

It now is established that the drydock was completely smashed by British bombs and shells on the occasion of the raids. The rusty remains of the gallant Vindictive are visible in exactly the same position as the vessel was sunk by the British navy, the Germans being unable to move it.

A typical letter describing what is happening in Germany is among the captured documents. It was written a few days ago by a German private to his brother-in-law on the battle front and described a scene on a railway on the arrival of a troop train from Russia. Officers were stoned and maltreated and attempts were made to shoot them because the men were required to entrain for the west front.

I will open a class in harmony and modulation of major and minor scales and chords, on Saturdays. Call at Hockett-Bristol's Music House. Mrs. L. Phelps.

BATTLE SOUVENIRS TO BE DISPLAYED

Souvenirs of the battlefield will be shown at the Red Cross shop on I street today, according to announcement made by the committee in charge.

The souvenirs include a German helmet, cap, belt buckle and finger ring and two empty shells, sent back from France by James Soren Ray, to his father, J. L. Ray of 811 Ferger avenue.

Young Ray went to Camp Lewis a year ago. He is a member of the 16 infantry, and was gassed in battle, but was sufficiently recovered to take part in the dash of the Americans at Chateau Thierry, where these exhibits were secured.

NOTED COMPOSER TOURING COAST

Frank McKee, noted composer of song and dance music, of New York City, and Mrs. McKee yesterday passed through Fresno on their way from San Francisco to Los Angeles. While here, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. Rowell, Mr. McKee being an old school fellow of Mr. Rowell. Mr. McKee is noted as the author poser, among his lighter compositions, of the "Cecile" waltz.

The Evidence Is At Your Door

Fresno proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

J. B. Allen, painting contractor, 652 Ines St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for the past five years and cheerfully tell of their worth. At times, the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and contained sediment. I had a dull ache in the small of my back and towards the latter part of the day I felt all worn out. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief." (Statement given January 13, 1913.)

On March 29, 1916, Mr. Allen said: "I have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills since giving my former statement in 1913. I consider myself completely cured."

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

REACH THE HUNDING IN THE CHAMPAGNE

PARIS, Oct. 19.—The French armies all along the front have been successful in their combats against the Germans, making advances at numerous points and at others warding off violent counter-attacks, rays tonight's official communication. In Champagne the French have reached the Hunding line, attacked it and captured St. Germainmont. Seven hundred prisoners were taken. The statement says:

"On the Oise front, the enemy was completely repulsed. East of the Oise, our troops have advanced along the canal from Oisy to Hauteville. They occupied the forest of Andigny and the villages of Etreat and Venerolles, and continued with their rightwing the pursuit of the enemy begun yesterday between the Oise and La Fere.

"The First army today achieved new successes. Rivemeont and the position dominating Villers Le Sec fell into our hands.

"More to the east we went beyond Fals Les Noyers and Caillion De Temple.

"On the Serre front the Tenth army this morning started an attack on the Hunding line near Pouilly and the Marsh of Sissonne, on a front of five kilometers. This position was forced by our troops who broke the enemy's stubborn resistance. We realized an advance of 1,300 meters in depth. The village of Vendeuil and the Athantrud farm and Fay Les Sec are in our hands. The number of prisoners runs into thousands.

"West of Barenton rivulet enemy counter-attacks by important effectives have been repulsed with heavy losses. Between Sissonne and Chateau Porcien the fight has not been less spirited. Local attacks brought us appreciable progress. We have reached the road from Sissonne to La Selve and have carried several fortified works."

AIR EXHIBITION AT SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 19.—What is declared to have been the largest and in other respects one of the most remarkable airplane exhibitions ever given in this country was that given here today by army aviators from North Island to mark the success of the local Liberty loan campaign. For nearly two hours 116 machines swept in massed formation over the city, some of them "bombing" the streets with printed Liberty loan appeals. The machines were of three types and of three different speeds, ranging from 70 to much more than 100 miles an hour.

All of them ascended and descended on exact schedule time and without the sign of an accident, not a strut or stick being out of place when the machines were returned to the hangars.

The exhibition, which was proposed and arranged by Lieutenant-Colonel Burwell, commanding the army aviation school, was witnessed by thousands. The roar of the mighty motors was heard for miles.

THE WORLD WAR

Rawlinson's Force

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 19.—(Reuters.)—British and American troops under General Rawlinson fought forward nearly six miles Friday in a menacing flank approach toward the supposedly main line to which the Germans are retiring. The attacking troops swung northward toward the railway between Valenciennes and Avesnes, which is of vital importance to the enemy, and they reached the fringe forest of Mormal.

The British advance in touch with the Americans was resumed at 5:30 o'clock in the morning against heavy but not desperate opposition, and at 11:30 o'clock the American center and right had moved forward several miles. More than 1,200 prisoners and twelve guns were taken early in the fighting. The Germans then took to rear guard fighting while their main force fell back.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 19.—A portion of the Russian budget published in Petrograd shows that expenditure on public services and the postal and telegraph service in the year 1918 was estimated at 916,000,000 rubles. The receipts were estimated at 337,000,000 rubles. The budget shows similar deficits in other departments.

PARIS, Friday, Oct. 19.—The Earl of Derby, the British ambassador, in the name of Great Britain, today placed a laurel wreath on the Lille statue in the Place De La Concorde, commemorating the liberation of Lille by the British troops. The wreath was decorated with the colors of France and Great Britain and bore the inscription: "Homage to the valiant martyr city of Lille."

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Free lunch counters maintained by saloons, hotel bars and other places will be allowed to serve only wheatless crackers, olives and pickles hereafter, the Federal food administration for California announced here today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Eating places which violate the new hotel and restaurant regulations of the food administration will be deprived of their sugar supplies for an indefinite time, it was announced today by the United States food administration for California.

CAMP LEE, Va., Oct. 19.—Two soldiers were killed and thirteen others seriously injured here today in an accidental explosion.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The Daily Mail's correspondent says:

"What is said to be the 'supreme feature of the war at Lille' was the successful concealment of a cow for four whole years. This cow is now being decorated to meet the British troops."

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 19.—The destroyer Bagley, named for Ensign Worth Bagley, the first naval officer killed in the Spanish-American war, was launched here today.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19.—A Handley-Page army bombing plane on its way from New York to Dayton arrived here today. Carrying seven men and five guns, the machine covered the eighty-six miles between Buffalo and Erie in 46 minutes.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—Buffalo Park, just outside the gates of the city, in the direction of Neuilly, and deriving its name from the character of the outdoor entertainments given there for years, has been taken over by the American Red Cross as a park for its lorries and ambulances. It was in Buffalo Park that Buffalo Bill's "Wild West Show" performed to the huge delight of juvenile Paris.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The Anti-Slavery and Aborigines' Protective Society has presented a memorial to the government asking for the abolition of the legal status of slavery in the former German territory in Africa now under British administration. They claim that there were approximately 185,000 slaves in German East Africa on the outbreak of war. Among the signers of the memorial are the Bishops of Durham, Manchester, Oxford, Salisbury, Exeter, Hereford and Kensington, with other prominent clergymen, members of parliament and well-known citizens.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—The American Red Cross has aided 5000 refugees returning to their homes in the conquered Aisne and Marne districts, in one month's time. Supplies have been sent to Chateau-Thierry, Essones, Dormans, Troissy, Verneuil and Vilers-Cotteret. Motor trucks known as rolling grocery stores make the rounds of the districts to supply the needs of the homecomers in places where no shops have yet opened.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR CARDINAL

BALTIMORE, Oct. 19.—Cardinal Gibbons was the recipient today of testimonials and congratulations from Great Britain, France and Italy on his episcopal golden jubilee which takes place tomorrow, observance of which began today. The French commission arrived this evening with the good wishes and congratulations of the French government and the French espiscopacy.

Monsignor Nicola, secretary of the apostolic delegation in Washington, presented the cardinal a metal crucifix, on which are delicately carved ivory figures of Christ and the Virgin Mary. An autograph letter from the Pope accompanied the gift.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 19.—Alaskans delayed at Skagway, Alaska, on account of lack of steamers, are to be brought south by the Canadian steamer Prince Rupert, which will make a special trip for their benefit.

WAR MINE TOPICS TO BE CONSIDERED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—War time problems confronting produce of gold, chrome, manganese and other minerals will be taken up by the California chapter of the American Mining Congress which is to be organized at a meeting of mining and oil operators from all parts of the state here, October 23 and 24.

After a campaign for increased production, to which chrome producers actively responded, the "bottom fell out of the market" for that mineral, according to Fletcher Hamilton, state mineralogist, who is one of the leaders in the movement to organize California mining men. The chrome situation and the plight of the gold producers, who face a rising cost of operation with no increase in the value of their product, will be discussed.

"The splendid work of the American Mining Congress," said Hamilton, "need not be explained to mining operators familiar with its activities, but to those unfamiliar it should be said that the congress has been of great benefit and excess profit taxes. It was also largely responsible for the creation of the Bureau of Mines which has been most valuable to the government during the present war emergency."

The meeting has been arranged by a committee including Albert Burch, Capt. John Barneson, Fletcher Hamilton and Louis D. Gordon of San Francisco and Philip Wiseman of Los Angeles. Mining experts well known nationally will address the operators here.

AMERICANS WELL KEPT IN SIBERIA

VLADIVOSTOK, Saturday, Oct. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—American troops in the Khabarovsk district are quartered comfortable in Russian barracks. The health of the men is good and they are happily surprised at the mildness of the weather. Prospects of a severe winter do not worry them.

HOME GUARDS WATCHING NUTS

RIVERA, Cal., Oct. 19.—An exceptionally heavy walnut crop this year has resulted in an unusually large number of thieves, with the result that the home guards of Rivera have been called into service and now are patrolling nightly ten square miles of orchards.

This organization, composed of 100 men, was formed about a year ago, and has business men as well as walnut growers in its personnel. While they hope for induction into the militia in time, they are busying themselves at present as vigilantes operating against orchard thieves.

GRIP EPIDEMIC IS MUCH WORSE, SAY OFFICIALS

Health Officer Charges Truth Is Hidden From General Public

Hospitals Taxed; Homes Full of Sick; Plans Closing Pool Rooms

Fresno people are being needlessly exposed to the Spanish influenza, and the epidemic has reached all parts of the city, prostrating numbers of persons and causing daily deaths, according to the health officers. Many of these cases are preventable, yet lack of co-operation on the part of the families of infected persons, and the failure to report cases and to exercise due care is causing unnecessary suffering, according to Dr. C. Mathewson, city health officer. Dr. J. D. Morgan, superintendent of the county hospital, also declares that lack of co-operation and the shortage of facilities is causing preventable deaths.

Thirty-five new cases were reported yesterday, but it is suspected by officials that the 300 cases reported in the last ten days are only a slight indication of the true situation.

"I have every reason to believe that there are hundreds of other cases," said Dr. Mathewson last night. "I have always held that a reported case is only an index for the others. One physician alone reported 21 new cases yesterday and only a few physicians reported. Yet all the physicians are working overtime, and I am satisfied some are not doing their public duty of reporting to the city office. I will take the situation up with the State Board of Health today.

"All the physicians have been asked to report promptly all case of suspected grip or influenza, and all cases of pneumonia. I have not received some reports until the victims had died of pneumonia, or influenza-pneumonia. It is the same old story of lack of co-operation. But the people did not realize the dangers of the situation.

"I have asked time and again for reports. For it is easy to see that the board can only know the facts from the reports. A heavy fine is the penalty for failure to report. The physicians know the law, and yet I have felt that they would consider the public health of too great importance to need any threats of prosecution.

"I have felt all along in spite of the optimistic reports of low totals that things are not going right, and that there is 'something rotten in Denmark.'"

May Close Today

More drastic regulations are to be formulated today. They are expected to include probable closing of pool halls, and possible closing of saloons, soda fountains and candy shops. Dr. Mathewson says, however, the closing of any one class of places will have little effect unless the public is more careful. Persons having incipient and lighter advanced cases of grip are at large in the city, and have the temerity to frequent public places. They crowd into restaurants, pool halls, and candy shops. He found a number of young students in shops mingling with persons with bad coughs and colds, and believes such things should be discouraged.

"Restaurant men have been warned to prevent persons coughing and sneezing from endangering other persons. They sterilize their glasses and dishes, and the employment of used napkins for drying dishes has been absolutely forbidden.

Thirty-five New Cases

"Thirty-five new cases were reported yesterday, and I telegraphed the thirty-five the night before. But of course there are more. What can an official do if reports are not made? How can I close up the places of business if the reports show decreasing numbers.

"As to the saloons, we have ordered them to sterilize everything, and to prevent people from congregating. So far as I have investigated, I have not seen more than five at one time. The saloons seem to be enforcing the law, but I will not draw the line upon closing them if it becomes necessary. I would also say that any storekeeper or any employe who coughs and sneezes is not a safe person to have waiting upon customers. We cannot close up all the business. In fact, if the public will do its share little cussing will be necessary.

"In every house where there is a case of grippe, the residents should remember that they are expected to observe the precautions just the same as if the house were quarantined. The sick person should be placed in an isolated room, and the members of the family should stay out of it. Whoever of the family waits upon the sick should wear a special gown, should wear a gauze face protector, and should wash the hands upon leaving the room. The disease is carried by contagion, and not often on the clothing. A person so waiting upon the sick should not mingle with other persons if it can be avoided, and should avoid coming to town."

Nurses Scarce

One of the great difficulties of the situation, Dr. Matthewson reports, is the shortage of nurses. There were three pneumonia cases reported yesterday which the physicians were unable to accommodate with hospital rooms. The county and the city have furnished the old orphanage for a pay-patient hospital, yet only two nurses have been found to run it. This is far too few, and the nurses association is combing the city for practical nurses to assist them. Due to the shortage of physicians and nurses, practically every nurse has private patients she cannot leave.

A desperate effort will be made by the board to get the new hospital opened today. If the nurses could have been found there are 20 or 30 cases now in private homes which could have been isolated in the hospital.

"The public should know the true situation," Dr. Mathewson said, "and full information should be available for the officials. Nobody should be high and mighty where public health is concerned."

Hospital Full

Dr. Morgan has 48 cases at the County hospital, practically all indigents. The hospital is practically filled to capacity. Only one of the cases admitted in the last week has been dismissed. About 10 per cent have developed pneumonia. There have been deaths.

"This influenza is no joke" said Dr. Morgan. People must not get the idea that it is a plaything. We have many serious cases, because the patients have not had attention in time. They should go to bed at the first attack. Those cases which develop into pneumonia generally reach the danger point in 4 or 5 days. After an ordinary case of Spanish influenza the patients are kept 6 to 10 days at the hospital. The influenza-pneumonia or broncho-pneumonia following the grip appears to be more severe than the usual lobar pneumonia.

"The epidemic has not yet reached its height, to judge from the present mingling of the sick and the well. I guess the people will mix till they get wise. No reasonable precaution should be neglected."

Says Wear Masks.

Dr. Morgan says the gauze mask is not a thing to be laughed at. Eight or ten thicknesses should be worn, and the gauze should be sterilized often by dipping in boiling water. No medication is necessary. Clerks are especially exposed, and masks would be useful.

"The community should wake up." He finds that the epidemic among the Mexican population is very severe and very general in some quarters. The Mexicans are being treated largely in their houses.

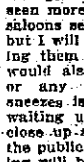

People should be careful even on the streets though the danger is far less in the open air.

The deaths reported yesterday were Austin Kearns on 12 street, and George W. Smith, a painter. Theodore Madsen of Fresno died in Nevada. Domenick Menecerelli of Firebaugh died yesterday, following the death of his wife, Pauline Menecerelli, Saturday night.

Dr. Mathewson said the present clear sunny weather with cool nights is most favorable in stamping out the disease, and that it is equally favorable for the patients, who are less liable to contract pneumonia.

Dr. Mathewson said that people living in apartment houses or rooming houses should be very careful

For the Boy Over There

A soldier without a compass is the same as a gun without a sight.

Over the top means excitement and bewilderment. No Man's Land offers no terrors should the soldier possess a "Cheby-nite" luminous compass, directions being easily determined by day or night.

A compass may save a life, and, mailed now, will reach the boys in the trenches in time for Christmas.

SHARON RAISES ITS SERVICE FLAG

Seven Stars Represent Young Men District Delights to Honor

With a program memorable because of its impressiveness, the town of Sharon, Madera county, raised a service flag yesterday afternoon in honor of the seven young men of that place who are in the army and navy—five of whom now are in France, one in Honolulu and the seventh in an Eastern hospital as a result of severe wounds received in France. Yesterday's affair was arranged by the Sharon Patriotic Club, recently organized, of which William A. Clarke, who presided at the exercises, is chairman.

Because of the influenza having broken into the speaking program of Mrs. R. S. Emerich, one of the United War Work speakers now touring California, Sharon was enabled to have her as one of its speakers yesterday. Mrs. Emerich returned recently from France, where she spent some time on Y. W. C. A. duty, particularly in the munitions factories of France. Her recital of her observations of conditions in France was listened to with sympathetic attention. "We of America do not yet know the meaning of the words service and sacrifice," declared Mrs. Emerich.

Henry Hawson of Fresno delivered the regularly programmed oration in which he said those young Americans who fell on the battle fields of France to protect the freedom and happiness of America, die but do not fail. He warned the mothers of the boys "over there" not to heed German peace pleas based upon the sympathies of American mothers and their desire for the return of their boys. District Attorney Stanley Murray of Madera made a four-minute talk. The Madera community singers, led by Miss Ruth Brooks, assisted in the success of the occasion. The women of Sharon served refreshments immediately after the unfurling of the service flag and a Liberty loan four-bar honor flag in front of the post office.

The seven Sharon boys represented by the stars on the flag are Arthur Kuhns Frank Harris, Ted Simmons, Wayne Hining, Edwin Davis, Ellis Marienstein and Elbert Orange, the last named having lost a leg at the second battle of the Marne.

BATTLE FORMATION DRILL INTERESTS DRAFT MEN

Field Exercises and Hike Develops Soldiers Here; Repeat Next Sunday

Officers' Training Week Begins; Big Classes Work Tonight

The drafted men's class yesterday did the second Sunday morning march, and practiced battle formations. The column traversed the city streets to the State Normal school, where observations began. Tests followed.

It was found that not half of them could tell the name of the Mission church five minutes after they passed it. Very few had noticed at another place that a man passed a minute before had red hair. Several caught the number of a passing motor car, but few could tell how many passengers were in the car. But after a few sudden questions by Captain S. L. Gallaher, who had charge, the men began to observe the routing, and the landmarks and the vantage ground.

"In Enemy Country"

As soon as the column reached campaign country advanced guards, flankers and supports were put out and, drilled as ares of the column. Marching into a weedy field, then a sandy flat with a wire fence on the crest of the ridge beyond, the training men were put into battle formation, ad advanced and retreated in open order.

The march continued to the state highway, and back to Roeding Park, where Sergeant Henry Hopkins and Clem Hunstock had the coffee coming to a boil. After a lunch, the men were given platoon drill back to the Armory, completing a march of about 7 miles and arriving home about 2 o'clock.

There were no sore feet, and every man was able to report on I street at the "double time."

Clovis sent a contingent to drill with the central class.

"Mulligan" Sunday

So well were the men pleased with the march that they unanimously demanded another next Sunday. The National Guard officers will arrange for the state to furnish a regular army "mulligan" as well as the coffee. The drafted men from surrounding towns are to be invited to attend and participate in the march and the dinner. In addition to the state dinner Private John Miscovich, who announced that he has trained down 10 pounds in two weeks and is making athletic and military progress, will treat the entire battalion to bottled soda. Miscovich will have charge of commissary transportation. An expert cook will prepare the mulligan.

The exercises will be more advanced than yesterday, as the corporals are developing skill, and more extended order and skirmish work can be managed.

Drill Tonight

The big Monday class will assemble before the armory for street drill tonight. The roster of men is being completed, and organization carried to the right point where school of the non-commissioned officer is needed. The first school will be held Wednesday night. The regular drills will be held throughout the week.

Kerman Rally

A meeting of the drafted men of the Kerman district to organize training companies will be held before Duke's hall tonight. F. A. Homan, district chairman of the State Council of Defense, and the Kerman committee composed of R. S. Elliott, J. A. Johnson and Oliver Dalbotten are calling the meeting, in response to popular demand. Kerman showed exceptional spirit by organizing a training school for the first draft, and is expected to have a large enrollment this time. A local officer will accompany Mr. Homan.

DR. H. M. SARKISIAN GETS COMMISSION

Announcement was made yesterday that Dr Hagg M. Sarkisian, a well-known dentist of Fresno, had been called into active service in the dental corps. He will receive his commission as first lieutenant. Dr. Sarkisian expects to leave in a few days.

TAX PAYMENTS BEGIN TODAY

County and state taxes are due today. Tax Collector Ray W. Baker and his assistants, who have been working every work day, including holidays, for a month, have completely cleared the counters for the payments, and something akin to a rush is expected this week. Those who have not received tax bills by Tuesday night should send in their names and address. Nearly $2,000,000 in taxes is to be collected this year.

CHURCHES UNITE IN SERVICE IN PARK

Dean G. R. E. MacDonald Preaches Sermon on Reconciliation

Combined Choirs Give Program of Music

Fresno churches held a combined service in the Court House park yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The service was the result of the closing of the churches on account of the prevalence of Spanish influenza, and the precautionary orders of the board of health to prevent its spread. The sermon was preached by Dean G. R. E. MacDonald, and a musical program was given under the leadership of Earl Towner.

The choirs of the various churches united in one large choir on the platform. There was a large gathering, and the morning was entirely suited to open air services.

Dean MacDonald preached a timely sermon on the subject of "Reconciliation" and brought out the relation of his subject to many of the problems of the day. Reconciliation, he said, would bring about a real peace, but the cessation of hostilities was not peace. Reconciliation would establish human brotherhood, and that brotherhood would have as its basis the Christ spirit. This spirit, he claimed was the only ideal of democracy.

Dean MacDonald chose as his text II Cor. 5:18; "All things are of God, who hath reconciled us unto Himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given unto us the ministry of reconciliation."

"Reconciliation" he said "means the restoring of a disturbed peace. One of the primal instincts of human nature is the desire for fellowship. God said 'It is not good for the man to be alone.' There is a sense of incompleteness in the solitude, man craves companionship. Man's destiny is to have perfect fellowship with God. The Old Testament is full of this truth.

First through individuals the great outstanding characters of old time, God reached out to the race seeking to draw men to himself. Then through the Chosen People the social character of the religious ideal is more clearly expressed, not as though God were the God of a single nation but that through Israel all the nations of the earth might be blessed. To Israel was entrusted the ministry of reconciliation. But in Jesus Christ was consummated the reconciliation. In his person is exemplified the perfect development of human nature to the point of divinity, the perfect fellowship between God and man. He is the meeting place, the common ground. He said "I if I be lifted up will draw all men with Me." His supreme sacrifice upon the cross is the "at-one-ment" of man with God. Now this is the whole burden of the Gospel message, this the mission of Christian people. God has "given unto us the ministry of reconciliation," that there should be consummated for all people the perfect fellowship with one another and with God.

Need Of Understanding

"As a nation of fact we know that in spirit of two thousand years, or there about, of this ministry of reconciliation, the world is now divided as never it was before, and strife and enmity and seeking their dire damage upon the earth. Indeed the whole realm of society is criss-crossed with lines of cleavage and chasms of separation between individuals and classes of people. Socially, economically, politically, religiously, fellowship has lost, and men are separated from one another. Is not the reason for these times of cleavage that we do not know one another as we should?

"We have so long lived superficially, emphasizing the non-essential things wherein we differ that we forget to develop the fundamental things wherein we are agreed. If we could get to know one another more perfectly we would find out how much we have in common, and having established a point of contact reconciliation would be within easy reach. But we are not thinking of the lack of social and class fellowship at home, important a problem as that is—we are thinking of the great world situation, and nations engaged in conflict unto death.

Relation to War

What does our ministry of reconciliation mean in relation to the war? Is it operative? In view of the commission how can Christian people oppose our immediate peace upon any terms which can be worked out? Peace is something much broader and deeper than a mere cessation of hostilities. Reconciliation can only be effected in the finding of the fundamental basis of Christian brotherhood and establishing the nations of the world once and for all upon that firm foundation. Democracy is that for which we are fighting, and Democracy is not a form of government but a spiritual ideal. It is a part of the essence of our manhood, it is that which reveals the brotherhood of man. We cannot stop short of that ideal.

Democratic Peace

If we build up a peace upon any other foundation than that spiritual ideal of Democracy which is the right and divine heritage of the people of all the nations of the earth we are inviting disaster for future generations. Because we are ministers of reconciliation we will see this thing through with our money and our blood in willing sacrifice that perfect fellowship may be established upon the earth.

New Conception of Religion

Another opportunity for reconciliation of the true sort is revealed to us by the new conception of religion which men are getting in these times of stress. The divisions of Christiandom have long been a by-word and a reproach to the Church of Christ, we have been magnifying the conventional things of our religion, and fussing about creeds and dogma. Those have seemed important to us, and they have of course a measure of importance, but on the battlefield men are discovering what a vital and what a simple thing religion really is. Chaplains of every religious name minister with acceptability and power to men of every and of no religious profession. When they come back they will not be satisfied with the superficial differences which make the churches many, but only with the fundamental spirit which makes the church one. It is important that we should be ministers of reconciliation within our own borders developing that essential vital religion, exemplified in the person of the living Christ, which is now more than ever meeting the human need.

When Peace Comes

But when peace is declared and the boys come home the war will not be completely won. The purpose of all the struggle and all the sacrifice is to win democracy for all the peoples of the earth, but having won it democracy must be established as the spiritual ideal of the nations. The fellowship of nations one with another through this common democratic ideal, which is the spirit of Christ, must be brought about. Probably nowhere more than in this community is there a responsibility resting upon people to be ministers of reconciliation to the diverse nationalities. We indeed seem to be a chosen people, that we should find all the things we have in common, learn to dwell as brothers together, welded into one great community-family, and so demonstrate to the world the ideal of international fellowship, the reconciliation of the races one with another in the Kingdom of God.

Triumph of the Cross

"The time may never come when the national forms of government will cease to be, but the time will come when the "kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our Son and of His Christ." The time may never come when the nations will cease to have each its own banner unfurled to the breeze, but the time will come when above those banners will rise supreme the blood red banner of the Cross of Christ. The time may never come when the nations will cease to sing the national anthems which have stirred the hearts of patriots in times of peace and of war, but the time will come when above the music of the old familiar songs will rise the wondrous harmony of international anthems of the Brotherhood of Man.

"All Hail the power of Jesus Name,
Let Angels prostrate fall,
Bring forth the royal diadem
And Crown His Lord of All."

FRANK D. FLEMING IS INFLUENZA VICTIM

Dies in San Francisco After Illness of Ten Days

Former Republican Reporter Was Bank Publicity Director

FRANK D. FLEMING,
Bank of Italy publicity director, and former Republican reporter, who died yesterday in San Francisco of Spanish influenza.

Frank D. Fleming, publicity director of the Bank of Italy, and formerly a member of the editorial staff of the Fresno Republican, died at the St. Francis hospital, San Francisco, last night at 8:30 o'clock, following an attack of Spanish influenza. He was taken ill a week ago last Friday, and his condition is reported not to have been considered serious until yesterday morning when pneumonia symptoms developed, and speedily reached a critical stage. He was removed to the St. Francis Emergency hospital in an unconscious condition. He was 28 years of age.

Fleming was born in Indiana, and came to California with his parents when he was a small boy. He received his education at Fresno elementary and high schools, and after leaving school he became a reporter on the staff of the Tribune, then the [illegible] noon paper in Fresno. On the staff of the Republican he was regarded as a trustworthy and highly efficient worker. In the course of his duties he came into contact with all the public men of the community, and when he received his San Francisco position, his friends in Fresno while appreciating the reward that was due his merits, regretted that he had to leave the district.

While on the staff of the Republican he also acted as Fresno correspondent for the San Francisco Chronicle, the Los Angeles Times and the Associated Press. On the staff of the Republican he won the affection as well as the respect of all his associates.

About six years ago he married Miss Ida Treece of Fresno, by whom he is survived. She resides at 1950 Sacramento street, San Francisco.

His duties as publicity director of the Bank of Italy included the editorship of the bank's publication "Bankitaly," advertising and publicity work generally. In July last during the National Advertising Men's convention in San Francisco the Bank of Italy was awarded first prize for their publicity exhibit.

Fleming's father and mother both survive him. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.
